

Victory Center Bible Camp Director Job Description

Victory Center Bible Camp (VCBC) is a non-denominational, evangelical Bible camp reaching youth and families for Christ in central South Dakota and beyond. Located in the rolling hills of Western South Dakota outside of Fort Pierre, VCBC gives an opportunity to experience God's wonder in creation firsthand and engage with others free from the distractions of everyday life. The camp director of VCBC is responsible for the operations of the camp ministry and is accountable to the board of directors.

Specific qualifications and skills/abilities are outlined below:

Qualifications:

- Passion for following Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior and leading others to Him
- Desire to serve with a Philippians 2:3-5 mindset in all aspects of ministry
- Love for children and camping ministry
- Willingness to take on challenges and work with others (e.g. staff, board members) towards solutions
- Integrity in his/her personal and professional life
- Flexibility to adapt to a variety of situations which may arise in a camp setting
- Discernment and wisdom with finances and resources
- Bible schooling/training is preferred
- Willingness to raise funds from a support base for their position

Skills/Abilities:

- Recruiting, training and leading staff/volunteers of the VCBC ministry
- Communicating and Collaborating with key stake holders-staff, board of directors, supporters
- Teaching the Bible and seeking to apply Biblical principles to all areas of camp ministry
- Overseeing operations of the camp ministry including the finances, upkeep of grounds, food service, program and counseling staff
- Organizing and developing camp brochures, camper registrations and social media promotions
- Developing a camp theme and Bible study material for each summer
- Reaching out to local churches and para-church organizations to build relationships
- Seeking ways to serve God with the resources He has granted VCBC
- Dealing with conflict using principles found in scripture including Matthew 18:15-17
- Possession of or willingness to obtain a CDL to drive the camp bus with required endorsements
- Knowledge and ability to perform basic maintenance functions is preferred

VCBC has been incredibly blessed through the years by God's faithfulness. We are seeking an individual who recognizes and appreciates the uniqueness of VCBC with the willingness to faithfully follow God's leading into the future as we serve Him. Our current camp director is willing to help as needed with the transition to new leadership and our board is committed to helping the next camp director succeed in their role. We are currently reaching 450 to 480 campers each summer through 7 weeks of service. You can check out the camp at www.victorycenterbiblecamp.com

To receive an application, contact VCBC current director at;

PO Box 524, Kadoka, SD 57543

Email at kentoews@goldenwest.net

call 605-837-2721